Artist Statement:

Driven by curiosity and irony, Lisa Graziotto's work focuses on figurative narratives. From large scale paintings to miniature portraits, each subject reflects both a critical worldview and self-consciousness stemmed from lived experiences. As a survivor, Lisa is interested in the liminal space between the subject and background. She invites viewers to take a second look at these relationships, the strangeness of the familiar and the subtle playfulness of these commentaries.

Volunteering for the OSA:

At this point, I am unable to volunteer any time outside of what I have on my studio schedule.

List of Artwork:

I would like to add here that the one piece added from 2015 is to fill a void of two years from 2019 to the latter part of 2020, where I was away from the studio as a result of being in treatment for cancer.
